Are you a parent/carer of a primary school aged child?

Why not come along to one of our fun and friendly sessions where you will get the chance to meet other moms, dads and carers.

These relaxed sessions will share ideas and tips with other parents/carers to support you and your growing child as you navigate parenting of a primary school child.

There are also sessions you can complete online at your own pace, with support from one of the friendly Family Hub Team if you have questions.

Stay Informed: Sandwell SEND E-Bulletin Sign up Now

Sandwell Council is launching a brand-new SEND e-bulletin this autumn, designed to keep everyone up to date on the borough's Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) Transformation Programme. The first edition will be issued end of this month.

Whether you're a parent carer, young person, professional, or part of an education setting, the e-bulletin will deliver the latest news, events, and opportunities straight to your inbox.

It's the easiest way to stay informed about important developments and SEND news in Sandwell. Don't miss out—sign up today to receive regular updates and be part of the SEND community. Visit the Sandwell Council website to subscribe to the Sandwell SEND Bulletin.
